

DBL Law Attorney named Director of Veterans Discharge Upgrade Review Clinic for Salmon P. Chase College of Law

February 14, 2022 Mary Bowler

DBL Law attorney Brad Steffen has been named Director of Veterans Discharge Upgrade Review Clinic for Salmon P. Chase College of Law. In this role, Brad works with law students to assist veterans seeking an upgrade to their negative discharge characterization from the military. The clinic is a way for students to get experience with government agencies and regulations, and to develop skills for working with clients.

Brad Steffen is an associate attorney practicing Civil Litigation, Employment and Labor Law and White Collar Criminal Defense. Prior to joining DBL Law, Brad served in the military as an officer in the United States Air Force JAG Corps for almost five years. During this time in the Air Force, Brad served as both a prosecutor and defense attorney.

Brad holds a J.D. from the Salmon P. Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University, where he graduated cum laude. During his time in law school, Brad served as an extern for both the Honorable Michael R. Barrett in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio and the Honorable William O. Bertelsman in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky. Brad also externed at the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Ohio during his entire last year of law school.

Brad is a Northern Kentucky native, having graduated from Bishop Brossart High School, and currently resides in Alexandria with his wife and two sons
