

DBL Law Attorney elected chair of Covington Catholic Board of Directors

November 9, 2021 Mary Bowler

Covington Catholic Board of Directors has elected DBL Law attorney Nick Birkenhauer to chair of its Board of Directors. Covington Catholic is the only all-male high school in Northern Kentucky and has a current student population of 503. Nick is a DBL Law partner whose practice is focused on assisting employers with all aspects of Human Resources and Employment Law. Nick has extensive experience working with employers of all sizes and across a wide array of industries, including healthcare and manufacturing.

Nick has considerable employment litigation experience, and practices at all levels of Kentucky and Ohio state and federal courts. Nick also regularly represents his clients before state and federal administrative agencies such as the EEOC, DOL, OSHA, Kentucky Labor Cabinet, Kentucky Human Rights Commission, and Kentucky Unemployment Commission. In addition to his employment work, Nick has broad business and commercial litigation experience.

In addition to his service on the Covington Catholic Board, Nick is also a member of the Northern Kentucky Workforce Investment Board and is active with the Alliance for Catholic Urban Education. He serves as co-chair on the Congregation of Divine Providence Development Advisory Board.
